J.V. CLARK SCHOOL CAREER FAIR IN MAYO

L-R: Brian Ryckman, Mine Training Supervisor, Mine Operations; Jason Tull, Planner, Site Services; Cascia Krolczyk, Human Resources Coordinator; Rylie Genier, winner of one of two Victoria Gold draw prizes; Megan Gent, Mine EIT, Technical Services; Lezley McAlister, Environmental Technician; and, Joel Poirier, Supervisor, Process; at the J.V. Clark School Career Fair in Mayo.

On Thursday, May 11, members of the Victoria Gold team participated in the J.V. Clark School Career Fair in the Village of Mayo.

This event facilitates a positive space for students to explore job opportunities and learn more about rewarding career possibilities.

“Victoria Gold really enjoys being a part of the J.V. Clark School Career Fair,” says Victoria Gold Community Liaison Michelle Dawson-Beattie. “Not only can students talk with potential employers like us about what makes an ideal employee for specific positions, it also provides a supportive and healthy social environment to connect with peers who may also be fellow job seekers.”

In addition to Dawson-Beattie, the Victoria Gold team included: Lezley McAlister, Environmental Technician; Cascia Krolczyk, Human Resources Coordinator; Megan Gent, Mine EIT, Technical Services; Jason Tull, Planner, Site Services; Brian Ryckman, Mine Training Supervisor, Mine Operations; and, Joel Poirier, Supervisor, Process.

In addition to information about current job postings at the Eagle Gold Mine, Victoria Gold hosted an environmental demonstration with water samples and offered two door prizes at the Company’s career fair booth. The winners were Rylie Genier and Quinn Morgan.

Victoria Gold is committed to Yukoners At Work. As of December 31, 2022, 38 per cent of the Company’s workforce was local and $17.38 million went directly to Yukon employees at the Eagle Gold Mine and within Victoria Gold’s Corporate operations. The majority of mine site employees work on a two-week shift rotation.
