

TEAM WORK

SCOTT TURNER, ERIC FRANCO, JENNIFER ROBERTSON, ROBERT BATEMAN AND JASON BURSEY

YUKONER AT WORK Scott Turner is a Site Services Planner at Victoria Gold's Eagle Gold Mine. He started working at the mine in September 2019 and in his role, schedules and plans maintenance and building projects at site.

"I really like that my position presents new challenges and expands my skill set every day," says Scott, an avid outdoorsman. "The amazing people I work with makes my job enjoyable and exciting."

Eric Franco, in Electrical Maintenance, has been with the company at the mine since last November. In his role, he maintains, installs and repairs electrical equipment at site. "I enjoy learning new skills to enhance my knowledge in the electrical field," says Eric. "Since working at the Eagle Gold Mine, I have acquired many new skills and really enjoy meeting all the diverse people working here in the territory."

Yukoner Jennifer Robertson, a Maintenance Administrator, works within the mine's Fixed Maintenance and Mobile Maintenance department. In her position, she assists with all documentation surrounding training, work orders, payroll and travel for the department's employees. "I really value working a rotational schedule, which when permitted again, will leave me lots of time for travel," says Jennifer. Part of the Eagle Gold Mine running club, she aims to get out for a jog everyday while at site.

Robert Bateman is a Fixed Maintenance Planner at the mine. In his role, he plans the maintenance work for the crushing, ADR and pad systems. "My favourite part of the job is making improvements to the mine's processes to help improve efficiency and I really enjoy the beautiful scenery at site," says Robert.

Equipment Operator Jason Bursey supports the mine's operations from grading roads and assisting with blast patterns operating an excavator, loader and shovel. Jason has also become part of the Eagle Gold Mine's Emergency Response Team (ERT).

"I really enjoy the diversity of my job," says Jason, who started with Victoria Gold at the mine in October 2019. One day I could be loading trucks and the next day building a new haul road. It's great being part of a new mine and helping out some of the newer team members."
