BORN EARLIER THIS MONTH, MICHELLE DAWSON-BEATTIE'S NEW FOAL IS NAMED EAGLE

"My new foal, born in the first week of June, is named Eagle because if it wasn't for the Eagle Gold Mine, I wouldn't have been able to come home when I did."

- MICHELLE DAWSON-BEATTIE, COMMUNITY LIAISON, VICTORIA GOLD CORP.

Michelle was hired as Victoria's Community Liaison in 2018 and brings a wealth of business and industry-Indigenous relations experience to the role.

"I'm proud to be a part of the Victoria Gold team and through my work, help ensure the benefits and opportunities a responsible development project such as the Eagle Gold Mine can provide NND citizens and all Yukon residents and communities throughout its mine life." - Michelle Dawson-Beattie, Community Liaison, Victoria Gold Corp.

Michelle is also the President of the Yukon First Nations Hockey Association (formerly the Yukon Indian Hockey Association) and is a Director on the Yukon Fish and Wildlife Management Board and Yukon Women in Mining. She lives in Champagne (Shadhala), a community of approximately 25 residents 78 kilometres west of Whitehorse, and enjoys spending time with her horses, including her recently born foals, and out on the land hunting and trapping.

ABOUT VICTORIA GOLD & THE EAGLE GOLD MINE

The Eagle Gold Mine, currently under construction, is part of Victoria's 100 per cent-owned Dublin Gulch gold property located approximately 375 kilometres north of Whitehorse and 85 kilometres north, northeast of the Village of Mayo within the traditional territory of the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun. The property is accessible by road year-round and is within Yukon Energy's electrical grid.

The Eagle Gold Mine has received all major permits for construction and operations, completed the Yukon Environmental and Socio-economic Assessment Board (YESAB) process and mutually created and implements the Comprehensive Cooperation and Benefits Agreement with the First Nation of Na-Cho Nyak Dun. Once in operations, the mine will be a significant economic contributor to Yukon employing 350 to 400 people.
